

Looking for a fun way to spend some time with a loved one? Here's a unique, fun, and positive way to do just that in the comfort of your own home. This piano course is designed for two people, who would enjoy one another's company, while learning a polished duet. No matter what level you are at, (complete novice, through advanced) you and your partner will look forward to each lesson, as your song(s) are introduced on a progressive level. Each note is written and arranged with your personal style and skill level in mind. The ability to read music is not absolutely necessary to enjoy this course. By the end of the 6-week session, you will have learned a new skill, enjoyed a lot of laughs, and have "that special song" to share with others, or simply cherish privately.

The 6, one-hour lessons must be completed within a 7-week period. More than one lesson per week is permitted. There is no registration fee and all materials and special arrangements/rearrangements are included in the cost of tuition.

This class would make a great birthday, anniversary, or 'just because' gift for a special friend, or would provide a unique bonding opportunity with a child, grandchild, niece, nephew or sibling. Choose 2 songs, submit the titles to me prior to our first lesson, and I will take it from there. Please contact me for more information, and let's get you started on making some beautiful music and memories together!
